The Episcopal Church enjoys open communion. Therefore, we invite all baptized Christians to receive communion at the Lord's Table. Please receive the bread in your hands and guide the base of the cup to your lips. If you prefer to intinct the wafer in the cup, please allow the priest, deacon, or Lay Eucharistic Minister (LEM) to do it for you. If you would like to receive a blessing instead of receiving communion, please cross your arms over your chest.

Anniversaries

Announcements

St. Peter's Reaching Out

The non-food pantry at the Tyler resource Center, administered by St Stephen's United Methodist Church is in dire straits. It is being called on for 400 percent more goods and is in great need of the same things that we supply the shut-ins with our Fifth Sunday donations: toilet paper, paper towels, shampoo, soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, razor, deodorants, paper & laundry products, especially BLANKETS AND TOWELS. If you were to bring just one thing and drop it in to a basket in the narthex, we will deliver it to Tyler Street for you. Thank you for your generosity.
